

Wish List 2016 for Collections

As Arch Street Preschool builds a joyful place for children, we rely on the generosity of the community to supply the needed materials for play. We welcome your ideas for ways you would like to share your gifts.

Early Literacy Items

- New children's books to add to our classroom collections including:
 - ✱ Whoever You Are by Mem Fox
 - ✱ I Love Myself by Karen Beaumont
 - ✱ La Chenille Qui Fait Des Trous (French Edition) by Eric Carle
 - ✱ SPARK Story Bible by Patti Thisted Arthur
 - ✱ Books from the National Education Association's Top 100 Books for Children List found online at www.nea.org.
- Hard cover board books for toddlers
- Soft pillows
- Soft, washable toys including cloth dolls representing diverse cultures.

Learning Materials

- Little people of all ages, races, genders, abilities for block play
- Doll houses and furniture
- Dress up costumes
- Things that go (boats, cars, planes)
- Magnifying glasses
- PK Board games (Sorry, Checkers)
- Binoculars
- Nativity sets
- Assorted Bells
- Baby wipes for toddlers

Technology

- Jambox for Preschool Room
- Cd's with different genres of music or burned cd's with music you would love to share.
- iTunes gift cards to purchase songs for lessons.

Outdoor Play Items

- Tricycles and wagons (communityplaythings.com)
- Bubbles
- Cars and trucks
- Sand toys

Art Supplies

- Glue sticks
- Crayola markers
- Play dough
- Watercolors
- Drawing paper
- Construction Paper
- Scissors
- Tape
- Michaels, Staples, and Dollar Store gift cards for teachers

Scholarship Fund Contributions

Gifts to the Scholarship Fund can be made payable to "Arch Street Presbyterian Church" with "preschool scholarship" in the memo.

Volunteers Needed

Arch Street Preschool welcomes one-time and regular volunteers for the following current projects:

- Designing outdoor play area.
- Sanitizing and organizing toys.
- Helping in the school office.
- Assisting during lunch and naptime.

All volunteers are required to complete three background checks.

Arch Street Preschool is an open and joyful, Christian learning community where gifts are celebrated through diversity, discovery and play.